APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART A: INTRODUCTION

In 2020, Brisbane Marketing Pty Ltd ACN 094 633 262 of Level 20, 69 Ann Street, Brisbane Queensland 4000, Australia, an Australian proprietary company, limited by shares, will present the 14th Asia Pacific Screen Awards (APSA). This Charter sets out the eligibility criteria and other rules applicable to the 2020 Asia Pacific Screen Awards.

1. Aims and Endorsements

- 1.1. The Asia Pacific Screen Awards aims:
 - to acclaim filmmaking in the Asia Pacific region that best reflects its culture, origins and cinematic excellence;
 - to award the people behind this excellence;
 - to promote this outstanding work in film to a global audience in order to broaden the market appeal of such works;
 - to encourage the collaboration of filmmakers in the region;
 - to develop, through film, greater understanding of the region's various cultures; and
 - to recognise the creativity of our neighbouring cultures in the vast Asia Pacific region and, in doing so, take it to the world.
- 1.2. The 14th Asia Pacific Screen Awards will be held at Brisbane City Hall, Queensland, Australia, on Thursday, 26 November 2020.
- 1.3. FIAPF – International Federation of Film Producers Associations has endorsed the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Charter.
- 1.4. The Director General of UNESCO has given formal endorsement for the Asia Pacific Screen Awards to be conducted under the auspices of UNESCO.
- 1.5. The Asia Pacific Screen Awards are a wholly owned subsidiary of Brisbane Marketing, an agency of Brisbane City Council.

2. Film Types & Award Categories

- 2.1. Films will be considered in the following four (4) feature-length film types:

3. Entry into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Competition

- 3.1. Films may be entered into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards either by being:
 - Officially invited by APSA ("invited films"); or
 - Submitted by an APSA Official Submitting Organisation ("submitted films")

APSA does not accept films that do not meet the eligibility requirements as set out in Part B: Eligibility. Any unsolicited entries must first be considered by the APSA Secretariat and does not guarantee invitation to the competition.

4. Award Stages

- 4.1. Films are invited and submitted to be 'In Competition' at the Asia Pacific Screen Awards. Upon receipt of all entry materials the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives are provided with the official APSA In Competition laurel for promotional use with the film.
- 4.2. 'Nominees' are determined by APSA Nominations Councils and announced in October 2020. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives are provided with the official APSA 'Nominated' laurel for promotional use with the film.
- 4.3. 'Winners' are determined by APSA Juries and winners are announced during the Awards Ceremony. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives are provided with the official APSA 'Winner' laurel for promotional use with the film.

Please see Appendix I for more details on the APSA competition and selection stages.

5. Award Vessel

- 5.1. Winners will receive a unique artisan made hand-crafted award vessel.
- 5.2. One (1) award vessel will be presented to the winning filmmaker(s) for each category at the Awards Ceremony.
- 5.3. Additional award vessels requested by the winners can be provided at their expense.

6. APSA Academy

- 6.1. All nominees and winners from the awards categories will automatically be inducted into the Academy of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
- 6.2. Members of the APSA Academy are granted exclusive access to submit to the MPA APSA Academy Film Fund for project script development, as well as other networking and development opportunities.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART B: ELIGIBILITY

Only films that meet the following conditions may be submitted or invited for competition in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.

1. Definition of the Asia Pacific Region

In this Charter, the "Asia Pacific Region" encompasses the 78 countries and areas listed in Appendix II. The inclusive APSA-defined region is based on culture and heritage rather than politics, borders or boundaries.

Films submitted or invited to be considered for the Asia Pacific Screen Awards must have been predominantly created in the Asia Pacific Region; have been predominantly created by filmmakers from the Asia Pacific Region and must reflect the cultural origins of the country or area in accordance with The Test (see Appendix III).

2. The Test

- 3.1 A film will qualify as a film from the Asia Pacific Region if it satisfies the criteria set out The Test (see Appendix III). A film will be eligible if it achieves at least nine (9) out of a possible twelve (12) maximum points in 'Content', and at least ten (10) out of a maximum nineteen (19) in 'Creatives'.
- 3.2 The Chair of APSA will, on behalf of APSA, make the final decision on the qualifying submissions and invitations applying The Test in its absolute discretion and may make an exception to a film that does not qualify if the resultant decision is based on the Asia Pacific culture and heritage content of the film.
- 3.3 The APSA Chair may take in to account the production support of non-Asia Pacific countries or areas that have had major producing roles to support and nurture a film from the Asia Pacific region. This reflects the growing non-border co-production environment of world cinema.
- 3.4 The Chair of APSA has the right to make case-by-case exceptions for entries that fail to meet the minimum required points, provided the film has an Asia Pacific Director.

3. General

- 3.1. Films must be feature-length, defined as over 60 minutes for fiction and youth films and over 40 minutes for animated and documentary films.
- 3.2. All films provided to APSA must be final and complete. No working titles will be accepted, unless by written agreement from the APSA Secretariat.
- 3.3. A film cannot compete or be considered for an award in multiple APSA years.

4. Premiere Status

- 4.1. Films must be:
 - theatrically released; or
 - presented at an international film festival; or
 - released on a video-on-demand (VOD) platform.
 - A documentary may also be broadcast on free to air, cable or satellite television.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 4.2. Films must have had first public screening (world premiere) or release after 1 August 2019 and before 31 October 2020. If a film had its world premiere before 1 August 2019, it may be considered eligible if it meets one of the following criteria:
- Internationally premiered after 1 August 2019; or
 - Released theatrically in its own country after 1 August 2019.
- 4.3. The Chair of APSA has the right in exceptional cases to not exercise this rule. The APSA Chair may take in to account the prevailing conditions of the country or area and the film industry from which the film has been entered. An example being if the film has been banned or censored in its country of origin and cannot achieve theatrical release.

PART C: COMPETITION ENTRY MATERIALS

1. Competition Entry Materials Required

To make a valid entry into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards competition the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives must supply by the entry deadline:

- Completed online Competition Entry Form.
- A high quality secure online video link or downloadable file that is permitted to be shared with APSA Secretariat and Nominations Council members for the purposes of determining the nominees for the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
 - Online links and passwords must remain valid until 30 September 2020.
 - English subtitles are required for all entries not in the English language.
 - Films should be presented in the language of their original production.
 - Watermarks or time coded security on film entries are acceptable for the Competition stage.
- Five (5) high-quality film stills (minimum 300dpi).
- Electronic press kit.

2. APSA Official Submitting Organisations

- 2.1. Selection and submission of the films from each country or area in the Asia Pacific region can be made by the Official Submitting Organisation or an approved committee.
- 2.2. One (1) film per category may be submitted, up to a maximum of four (4) films:
1. Fiction Feature Film
 2. Youth Feature Film
 3. Animated Feature Film
 4. Documentary Feature Film
- 2.3. The Official Submitting Organisation or committee in each eligible country or area in the Asia Pacific region will be the FIAPF member producer organisation, or if no FIAPF member producer organisation exists, any representative association or committee approved by FIAPF and APSA.
- 2.4. A list of Official Submitting Organisations is set out in Appendix IV.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

3. Entry Fees

- 3.1. There are no entry or submission fees associated with the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
- 3.2. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives must bear the cost of producing any entry materials.

4. Entry Deadline

- 4.1. Entries for Invited Films are upon receipt of the official APSA invitation.
- 4.2. The deadline for Invited Films will be determined on a case by case basis and will be included in the official invitation sent by APSA.
- 4.3. Submitted film entries from Official Submitting Organisations open on 1 April 2020 and close on 30 June 2020.
- 4.4. Extensions to deadlines must be by written agreement from the APSA Secretariat.

PART D: SELECTION OF NOMINEES AND WINNERS

1. Selection Process

- 1.1. Please see Appendix I for a detailed breakdown of the APSA Competition Process.
- 1.2. Nominations Council and Jury members are independent, suitably qualified experts, selected and appointed by APSA.
- 1.3. Nominations Councils and Juries will be headed by a Chair or President.
- 1.4. Nominations Councils and Juries will provide, at selection and deliberation meetings, a full and fair consideration of the merits of all eligible films.
- 1.5. All deliberation meetings will be attended by an independent scrutineer who is registered by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission.
- 1.6. All Nominations Council and Jury members will sign confidentiality and conflict of interest declarations.
- 1.7. Any person determined by APSA to have taken part in, or to have or perceived to have an interest in relation to, the production or distribution of a film in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards competition will declare that interest and will not vote for the film(s) with which the person has declared an interest. APSA and the independent scrutineer will oversee the declared interest and voting process to maintain the integrity of this rule and the overall voting process.
- 1.8. Nominations Councils and Juries will be provided with access to secure online screener links as provided by Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives and may deliberate on nominees and winners via a virtual platform.
- 1.9. In the case of tied votes at any stage, the independent scrutineer will detail the votes cast to the Chair or President, who will either:
 - exercise a casting vote; or
 - ask the Nominations Council or Jury to deliberate further and vote again in order to reach a definitive decision; if this fails, the Chair or President will exercise a casting vote.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1.10. The final results will be known only by APSA Secretariat, the Nominations Councils and Juries, and will be scrutinised by an independent scrutineer.
- 1.11. All decisions made by APSA Secretariat, the Nominations Councils and the Juries are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

2. Selection of Nominees

- 2.1. Nominations Councils have the right to consider a film across multiple eligible types: i.e. Fiction and/or Youth and/or Animation and/or Documentary. However, a film can only be nominated in one of these types.
- 2.2. Youth films will also be considered by Nominations Councils for the Cultural Diversity Award under the patronage of UNESCO and Young Cinema Award categories.
- 2.3. Based on a weighted voting system or by reaching consensus, the Nominations Councils will nominate within the following categories:
 - Best Film – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Animated Film – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Documentary Film – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Youth Film – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Director – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Screenplay – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Cinematography – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Actress – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Best Actor – up to five (5) Nominations
 - Cultural Diversity Award under the patronage of UNESCO – up to five (5) Nominations
- 2.4. APSA Secretariat has the right, at its discretion, to name any additional qualified individual(s) as nominee(s), as applicable, to the relevant award category.
- 2.5. APSA Secretariat and Nominations Councils may, with general consensus, reduce or increase the number of nominations in the award categories.
- 2.6. In the event a nominated film is declared ineligible by APSA Secretariat, it will be suitably replaced at the discretion of APSA, in agreement with the relevant Nominations Council and independent scrutineer; the film would not be replaced and the category will remain with one less nomination.
- 2.7. APSA will announce the nominees in each award category in an official press announcement five (5) to eight (8) weeks before the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony. All successful nominees will be notified by APSA prior and/or at the time of the official press announcement.
- 2.8. Once a film has been selected for nomination it cannot be withdrawn from the Asia Pacific Screen Awards without written advice to APSA.
- 2.9. All decisions made by APSA Secretariat and Nominations Councils are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

3. Selection of Winners

- 3.1. The International Nominations Council will determine the winner of the Young Cinema Award in partnership with GFS and NETPAC from the pool of fiction films in competition.
- 3.2. From the list of nominated films selected by the Nominations Councils, the Juries will, by way of a weighted voting system or by reaching consensus, determine one (1) winner for each of the awards categories.
- 3.3. The Juries may at their discretion allocate a limited number of Special Mentions in the award categories.
- 1.1. The International Jury may award the Jury Grand Prize to any key individual attached to a nominated film in the fiction nominated award categories.
- 3.4. Results will be kept secret until the announcement at the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony.

PART E: AWARD CATEGORY RULES

1. Best Film

- 1.1. The individuals who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credits as Producer(s) and Director(s). APSA defines Producer(s) as the main Producer(s) credited in the film, this is not inclusive of Executive Producers, Co-Producers, Associate Producers, etc.
- 1.2. Producers credited on anthology/omnibus works must be the credited Producer of the overall anthology/omnibus works, regardless of whether each segment has individual Producers attached.

- 6.1. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit as Screenwriter and/or Co-Screenwriter.
- 6.2. Original or Adapted Screenplays are eligible.
- 6.3. The Award will be determined by English language subtitled submissions. It is strongly recommended that the Producer/Production Company ensures the best possible English subtitled translation from the original language works.

7. Best Cinematography

- 7.1. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit as Cinematographer or Director of Photography/DOP.

8. Best Actor and Best Actress

- 8.1. The individual(s) who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credit for a main character in the film.
- 8.2. Dubbed performances will be ineligible. Singing that is dubbed will not affect the performer's eligibility unless it constitutes the entire performance.
- 8.3. Voice performances for characters in an animation feature are not eligible.

9. Cultural Diversity Award under the patronage of UNESCO

- 9.1. This award goes to the film that best reflects UNESCO's definition of Cultural Diversity.
- 9.2. All fiction films in competition are eligible for consideration for the Cultural Diversity Award under the patronage of UNESCO.
- 9.3. The individuals who will be credited, nominated and awarded for Asia Pacific Screen Awards purposes must have screen credits as Director(s) and Producer(s). APSA defines Producer(s) as the main Producer(s) credited in the film, this is not inclusive of Executive Producers, Co-Producers, Associate Producers, etc.

10. Jury Grand Prize

- 10.1. All nominated fiction films are eligible for consideration for the Jury Grand Prize by the APSA International Jury.
- 10.2. The Jury Grand Prize may be awarded to any key individual attached to a nominated film in the fiction nominated award categories.
- 10.3. The Jury Grand Prize winner will be automatically inducted to the APSA Academy.

11. Young Cinema Award in partnership with NETPAC (Network for the Promotion of Asia Pacific Cinema) and GFS (Griffith Film School)

- 11.1. All 'In Competition' fiction films that have been directed by first or second time feature-length filmmakers, are eligible for consideration for the Young Cinema Award.

- 11.3. The Young Cinema Award recipient will be automatically inducted to the APSA Academy.
- 11.4. APSA Secretariat may announce the winner in an official press announcement before the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony. The winner will be notified by APSA prior and/or at the time of the official press announcement.

12. FIAPF Award for outstanding achievement in film in the Asia Pacific region

- 12.1. FIAPF–International Federation of Film Producers Associations (FIAPF) will decide the winner in this category in its absolute discretion.
- 12.2. The FIAPF Award recipient will be automatically inducted to the APSA Academy.
- 12.3. APSA Secretariat may announce the winner in an official press announcement before the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony. The winner will be notified by APSA prior and/or at the time of the official press announcement.

PART F: IF YOUR FILM IS NOMINATED

1. Attendance at the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony & Asia Pacific Screen Forum

- 1.1. Subject to the receipt by APSA of all nominated film materials required, one (1) nominated filmmaker per film will be invited to attend the Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony in Brisbane, Australia on 26 November 2020.
- 1.2. Air travel and hotel accommodation for the purposes of attendance at the Awards Ceremony and Asia Pacific Screen Forum will be paid by APSA.
- 1.3. Further terms and conditions of travel will be provided to all nominees at time of announcement.

2. Nominated Film Materials Required

2.1 The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives of each nominated film must, within five (5) business days after receiving notification of their successful nomination, deliver the following materials to APSA:

- An online high quality non-watermarked version of the film that was entered for competition, at full running length. Films will be retained by APSA under tight security until the deliberation process is completed. Films will be used for private Jury viewing to determine the APSA winners.
- Current biographies and high resolution headshots (300 dpi) for all nominated filmmakers.
- At least four (4) film excerpts up to three (3) minutes in length each in a high definition digital file format (e.g. ProRes 422 HQ .mov (QuickTime) file or mp4 file at 1920 x 1080p or higher resolution). These film excerpts must best reflect the nominated category. APSA does not accept trailers as film excerpts.

APSA may also determine suitable film excerpts, as appropriate to the awards categories, and request high definition versions to be supplied.

- A trailer in MOV or MP4 format (for use on social media).

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Permission to share the film (a watermarked or a non-watermarked version) privately with accredited media representatives and Asia Pacific Screen Forum industry delegates for the purposes of promoting the film and its nomination.

2.2 Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives must bear the cost of producing any nomination materials.

2.3 In the event the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives fail to supply the materials required, the nomination will be disqualified.

3. Grant of Rights to Film Materials

3.1. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives acknowledge and agree that they are solely responsible for obtaining all necessary authorisations and/or licences relating to the use of copyright material and material containing the intellectual property rights of any person in the nominated film materials (including licences of moral rights). APSA takes no responsibility for any failure by the Producer and/or authorised representatives to obtain any necessary authorisations and/or licences.

3.2. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives agree APSA has the right to:

- Screen the nominated film free of charge to Jury members for the purposes of determining the winners of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
- Screen nominated film excerpts on large screens and monitors at the Awards Ceremony and at any pre- and post-Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony functions.
- Make the nominated film screener privately available to nominees and accredited press in the days leading to the Awards Ceremony.
- Share film information with press.
- Use the supplied competition entry materials as well as nominated film materials at the Awards Ceremony, at pre- and post- Awards Ceremony functions, and in marketing collateral.
- Use supplied materials to publicise the Asia Pacific Screen Awards by any means including on its website, social media, YouTube video channel, in highlights trailers, in public relations, advertising and promotional materials related to the Awards Ceremony or the Asia Pacific Screen Awards themselves.
- Incorporate (and permit its assignees, licensees, producers, agents and contractors to incorporate) selected excerpts and stills from the nominated film into television programs produced by APSA (or an assignee, licensee, producer, agent or contractor of APSA) in relation to any Asia Pacific Screen Awards Ceremony or function where all intellectual property rights will be owned by APSA and or licensed to other third party licensees at APSA's absolute discretion (including for transmission an unlimited number of times of each of the programs and in any version thereof, in whole or in part via any and all media now known or hereafter developed in perpetuity).
- Translate (and authorise third parties to translate) the materials or excerpts into any and all languages.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART G: GENERAL

1. Authority/Dispute

1.1. APSA Secretariat reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion to:

- Determine whether an entry is validly made in accordance with this Charter;
- Reject any entry that is not validly made in accordance with this Charter;
- Determine what process, if any, it may adopt to resolve the validity of any entry;
- Determine the appropriate film categories for any film and override the selection of the film category made by the entrant;
- Determine the composition of the APSA Selection Panels, International Nominations Council, and Juries;
- Vary the awards that are presented or introduce new awards categories into the Asia Pacific Screen Awards;
- Settle all disputes in relation to this Charter and the Asia Pacific Screen Awards;
- Settle all cases in relation to the Asia Pacific Screen Awards that are not covered by this Charter; and
- Delegate any power, right or discretion under this Charter conferred on it to the APSA Secretariat.

1.2. In the event of any dispute concerning credits, APSA reserves the right to declare any film ineligible or, alternatively, to reject all claims to credit, list the credits as being in controversy and withhold any award until the dispute is resolved.

1.3. The decisions of APSA will be final and binding, and no correspondence will be entered into.

2. Representations and Warranties

2.1. Producers and/or authorised representatives represent and warrant in respect to each film that it has delivered to APSA, and any materials that it delivers to APSA, that:

- the film and any other materials delivered to APSA comply with the terms and conditions set out in this Charter.
- it has the unrestricted authority to enter the film in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards and grant the rights specified in this Charter whether in its own right or on behalf of any third party directly or indirectly associated with it;
- the information that it has or will provide to APSA is complete and accurate;
- it will not make any statement or act in any manner which, in the opinion of APSA, may bring the reputation of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards into disrepute;
- the film is its original work and it is the owner of the copyright in the film;
- the copyright in the film and any materials delivered with its entry and the dramatic and musical material upon which it is based or which are contained in the film or materials delivered to APSA will be valid and subsisting for the full term of copyright and (if applicable) copyright renewal;

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

- neither the film, nor any part of the film, nor any materials contained in the film, nor any other materials delivered to APSA, infringe any trade mark, trade name, contract, agreement, copyright, literary, artistic, dramatic, personal, or property right or right of privacy or any other right whatsoever of, or defames, slanders or libels any person whatsoever;
- it has not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed, or otherwise encumbered, and will not sell, assign, transfer, convey, or otherwise encumber to any party, any right, title or interest in and to the film or any materials delivered to APSA or any part of the film or those materials, which would interfere with APSA's employment of the rights granted to APSA under this Charter;
- it has obtained and will maintain all necessary licences for the production, synchronisation, exhibition, performance, distribution marketing and exploitation of the film and other materials delivered to APSA to exercise the rights granted under this Charter;
- there is no pending or threatened claim or litigation with respect to the film or other materials submitted to APSA, and the Producer(s), and/or Sales Agent, and/or Distributor will promptly notify APSA if any claim should be made or any litigation should be commenced with respect to the film or other materials submitted to APSA.

3. Indemnity

- 3.1. Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold APSA, its parent, subsidiary, related and affiliated entities and each of their officers, directors, agents, representatives, shareholders and employees harmless from any and all claims, suits, expenses, damages or other liabilities, including reasonable legal fees and court costs, suffered by APSA as a result of:
 - any breach by the nominating film organisation or the Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives of the representations and warranties or other terms and conditions set out in this Charter; and
 - any use by APSA (or any of its licensees, producers, agents or contractors) of the film or any other materials submitted to APSA in accordance with this Charter violating or infringing any trade mark, trade name, contract, agreement, copyright, literary, artistic, dramatic, personal, or property right or right of privacy or any other intellectual property rights whatsoever of any third party, or defaming, slandering or libeling any person whatsoever.
- 3.2. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives acknowledge and agree that APSA will not be responsible for paying any fees or copyright royalties in relation to film materials.
- 3.3. While APSA will take reasonable steps to prevent any unauthorised third parties from accessing or misusing any film that is provided for consideration by the APSA Secretariat, Nominations Councils and/or Juries, APSA will not be responsible for any unauthorised access or misuse or any loss and/or damage of a film and nominated materials.
- 3.4. While APSA will take reasonable steps to ensure a secure platform is in place for any virtual deliberations and discussions, APSA will not be responsible for any technological failures or disclosure of confidential information.

APSA CHARTER RULES AND REGULATIONS

4. Rules for Publicity and Promotions

- 4.1. Nominees and winners may refer in advertising and publicity to the fact that they are an "Asia Pacific Screen Awards" nominee or winner. The award nominees and winners must (and must ensure their distribution companies agree to) use the exact wording of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards and display of the APSA award laurel as set out by the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.
- 4.2. Nominees and winners agree to refer to (and procure that their distribution companies refer to) the nomination or the award in all future promotion campaigns, for example, on poster and day bill campaigns, in magazine and newspaper advertising and in trailers with Nominated and Winner Laurels of the Asia Pacific Screen Awards provided at the time of nominee and winner notification.
- 4.3. The Producer(s) and/or authorised representatives acknowledge and agree that APSA owns all intellectual property rights (including copyright, trade mark, confidential information, design and patent, whether Australian or foreign, and whether registered or unregistered) in the Asia Pacific Screen Awards including all intellectual property rights in the name "Asia Pacific Screen Awards" and any other registered or unregistered trade mark, brand, slogan, logo, emblem or other device now used or developed in the future relating to the Asia Pacific Screen Awards.

5. Force Majeure Event

- 5.1. In the circumstance of a Force Majeure Event:
 - APSA will not be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations as described in this Charter; and
 - APSA may make alternative arrangements to proceed with the Competition in a matter it sees fit.
- 5.2. For the purposes of this clause, a Force Majeure Event means any event that is not reasonably within the control of the parties including inclement weather, lighting strikes, fire, flood, inundation, earthquakes, smoke, explosions, bomb threats, epidemics, pandemics, labour troubles, strikes or other industrial disturbances, inevitable accidents, war (declared or undeclared) embargoes, blockades, legal restrictions, riots and threats of damage to person or property.

6. General

- 6.1. This Charter is governed by and must be construed according to the law applying in Queensland, Australia and each entrant irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland, Australia, and the courts competent to determine appeals from those courts, with respect to any proceedings that may be brought at any time in relation to this Charter.
- 6.2. This Charter may be varied by APSA Secretariat in its absolute discretion and any variations will be binding on each entrant once such variations have been published on the APSA website.
- 6.3. APSA may assign, novate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this document without the prior consent of any person. Each entrant cannot assign, novate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this document without the prior consent of APSA.
